Pastor: Tod R. Rappe (910)488-6010 (W) 488-3046 (H)
Organist: Barbara Sexton
Web site: www.faylcms.org

Our practice of closed communion is the historic practice of the church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity is central to the common reception of this sacrament. For this reason, guests who desire to commune are asked to speak with the pastor before the service.

WELCOME! We invite all visitors to sign the guest register in the narthex and worship with us again. If you are not a first time visitor and are not communing, please complete the card located with communion cards in front of the pews. If you have questions about how to join our church or study the Scriptures with us, please speak with one of our Elders or the Pastor.

Each Saturday evening from 6-8PM Pastor Rappe avails himself for private confession and absolution, that which the historical Lutheran Church refers to as the third Sacrament. This is made available to those whose consciences are burdened and whose hearts are troubled. No one is forced to make private confession, as no one is forced to Baptism or the Holy Supper. Rather, this is the means of God's gospel to those who seek Him and the forgiveness of sins in Jesus.

OLD TESTAMENT

Then those who feared the LORD spoke to one another,
And the LORD listened and heard them;
So a book of remembrance was written before Him
For those who fear the LORD
And who meditate on His name.

"They shall be Mine," says the LORD of hosts,
"On the day that I make them My jewels.
And I will spare them
As a man spares his own son who serves him."
Then you shall again discern
Between the righteous and the wicked,
Between one who serves God
And one who does not serve Him.

MALACHI 3:16-18

EPISTLE

But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror; for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does.

If anyone among you thinks he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one's religion is useless. Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

HOLY GOSPEL

JOHN 16:23-30

And in that day you will ask Me nothing. Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you. Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full.

“These things I have spoken to you in figurative language; but the time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figurative language, but I will tell you plainly about the Father. In that day you will ask in My name, and I do not say to you that I shall pray the Father for you; for the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and have believed that I came forth from God. I came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world and go to the Father.”

His disciples said to Him, “See, now You are speaking plainly, and using no figure of speech! Now we are sure that You know all things, and have no need that anyone should question You. By this we believe that You came forth from God.”

While the psalmist urges us to "make a joyful noise to the Lord", he did NOT mean cell phone ringtones, children's noisy toys or other modern electronic marvels. Rather, these should be SILENT while we lift our voices and hearts in worship through song and prayer to our Lord. Please see that all cell phones, toys and anything else that might disrupt our worship are turned off.

PLEASE COMPLETE A COMMUNION CARD.

Fill in the names of only those who are communing and hand it to the usher as you proceed to the altar.

It's Time To Be doing Your Spring Cleaning to get ready for the LWML yard sale. The yard sale will be Friday, June 11th and Saturday, June 12th. It's a great excuse to clean out your closets, cabinets, garage, etc. We ask that you place your items up in the attic on the right side behind the blue tape on the floor.

Donations Are Still Needed to finish with the construction of our final renovation project of the church. Thank you for your donation.

ASENCENSION SERVICE

Thursday At 7:00PM

Kids in the DIVINE SERVICE

What's the date today?

Usually when someone asks this question, you might look to the calendar hanging on your wall for the answer. Once you have figured out the answer, it might help determine what you will wear, where you will go, and what you might do. For example, if the date were January 15th, you would probably decide to wear warm clothes because it could be cold outside. As you can see, calendars help keep things in order.

What does this have to do with the Divine Service?

Did you know that the church has its own calendar? That's right! It even has its own seasons. Instead of seasons based on the weather, the church's seasons are based on the life of Christ and His church. The calendar that you use everyday has summer, fall, winter, and spring. The church year calendar has Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, and many more. Look in the front part of your hymnal to see if you can tell which season we are in now. As you can see, the church year calendar helps put order to the seasons and festivals of the church.

FOR PARENTS

Before or after the service, direct your children to the front part of the hymnal. Go through the calendar and discuss the different seasons. Remind them that many of the special dates we have on our everyday calendars come from the church year calendar, i.e., Christmas, Easter, etc.

Sunday School Notes
Week of: Sunday, April 18, 2021
Season: Easter

Today is: The Third Sunday of Easter, Misericordias Domini.
"Misericordias Domini" is Latin for "mercies of".

Another 'theme' people refer to today is 'Good Shepherd' Sunday, we see this in our Old Testament reading and our Gospel readings.

Church Paraments: The church paraments are now white. White is used to represent purity and completeness. We now rejoice because Christ has triumphed over death, and white reinforces that joy. White also reminds us of in Isaiah 1:18: "though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be white as snow."

Sunday School Lesson: In today's lesson, we learned more about Jacob's family in "A Family Grows" (Genesis 29:1-30). Jacob experiences love at first sight when he meets Rachel at the well. Welcomed into his uncle Laban's household, Jacob agrees to work seven years in order to marry Rachel. When the wedding celebration arrives, Laban tricks Jacob into marrying Rachel's older sister, Leah. Realizing the deception, Jacob confronts his uncle, who gives him Rachel's hand for another seven years of service.

Parents: As we continue talking about family and the relationships God has blessed us with, also remind them these relationships have faults, because we are sinners. We don't deserve it but God blesses us with our family. He especially blesses us with forgiveness through His son, Jesus, the ultimate fulfillment of the promised line of Isaac and Jacob.

Bible Verse: "Let all that you do be done in love." 1 Corinthians 16:14

We invite all children Pre-K through 5th grade to join us at 9:00 am.
