TRINITY I

Pastor: Tod R. Rappe (910)488-6010 (W) 488-3046 (H)
Organist: Barbara Sexton
Web site: www.faylcms.org

Our practice of closed communion is the historic practice of the church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity is central to the common reception of this sacrament. For this reason, guests who desire to commune are asked to speak with the pastor before the service.

WELCOME! We invite all visitors to sign the guest register in the narthex and worship with us again. If you are not a first time visitor and are not communing, please complete the card located with communion cards in front of the pews. If you have questions about how to join our church or study the Scriptures with us, please speak with one of our Elders or the Pastor.

Each Saturday evening from 6-8PM Pastor Rappe avails himself for private confession and absolution, that which the historical Lutheran Church refers to as the third Sacrament. This is made available to those whose consciences are burdened and whose hearts are troubled. No one is forced to make private confession, as no one is forced to Baptism or the Holy Supper. Rather, this is the means of God's gospel to those who seek Him and the forgiveness of sins in Jesus.

OLD TESTAMENT
Thus says the LORD:

"Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom,
Let not the mighty man glory in his might,
Nor let the rich man glory in his riches;
But let him who glories glory in this,
That he understands and knows Me,
That I am the LORD, exercising lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth.
For in these I delight," says the LORD.

JEREMIAH 9:23-24

EPISTLE

No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love has been perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God in him.

Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as He is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love. We love Him because He first loved us.

If someone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? And this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also.

HOLY GOSPEL

LUKE 16:19-31

“There was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and fared sumptuously every day. But there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, full of sores, who was laid at his gate, desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man’s table. Moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. So it was that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels to Abraham’s bosom. The rich man also died and was buried. And being in torments in Hades, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

“Then he cried and said, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.’ But Abraham said, ‘Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted and you are tormented. And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can those from there pass to us.’

“Then he said, ‘I beg you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father’s house, for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they also come to this place of torment.’ Abraham said to him, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.’ And he said, ‘No, father Abraham; but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’ But he said to him, ‘If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rise from the dead.’”

Birthdays This Week

Kamryn Oxendine 6/10
Evangeline Schmidt 6/11

While the psalmist urges us to "make a joyful noise to the Lord", he did NOT mean cell phone ringtones, children's noisy toys or other modern electronic marvels. Rather, these should be SILENT while we lift our voices and hearts in worship through song and prayer to our Lord. Please see that all cell phones, toys and anything else that might disrupt our worship are turned off.

PLEASE COMPLETE A COMMUNION CARD.

Fill in the names of only those who are communing and hand it to the usher as you proceed to the altar.

NURSERY ROOM is available for Children under 5 years of age who are having difficulty the service. There is also a rocking chair in the room. The room also has speakers in it to hear the service.

If we have missed anyone's birthday or anniversary, please let us know.

Church Council Meets next Sunday June 13th right after worship service. Open to the congregation.

CALLING ALL MEN to bring yard sale items down from the attic to be put in the parish hall today right after worship service. We will be having our refreshments after church service outside on the patio so it will give us enough room in the parish hall for the items. We also need help to price and sort during this week. If you cannot come during the day, we will also have a work night this Thursday, June 10th at 6PM. Pizza and drinks will be provided. There is a sign up sheet on the bulletin board next to the church office where you can sign up to volunteer. Thank you for volunteering.

Play Date For Children And Their Families at Smith Lake Park on Friday, June 25th at 9:00AM. There are restrooms and pavilions open and available. If there are any questions, please feel free to call Laura Sattgast at 402-618-5703. Come and join in the fun.

NO MEN'S BIBLE BREAKFAST next Saturday Pastor and Darline will be out of town on vacation.

If You Have A Pastoral Need while Pastor is away, please do not hesitate to call the church office (488-6010), or head Elder Dick Davis at (867-0747).

ST BARNABUS, APOSTLE-JUNE 11TH:

Barnabus, one of Christian disciples, was originally called Joseph. After Paul's conversion, it was Barnabus who introduced the former persecutor of Christians to the apostles. With Paul he organized the first missionary journey, but he was soon overshadowed by Paul. At the council of Jerusalem he defended the claims of the Gentile Christians. In the Eastern Church, Barnabus is commemorated as one of the seventy commissioned by Jesus, and the observance dates from the fifth century. Tradition asserts that he martyred at Slamis, Cyprus, in A. D. 61. He is regarded as the founder of the church on Cyprus.
