TRINITY I

Pastor: Tod R. Rappe (910)488-6010 (W) 488-3046 (H)
 Organist: Barbara Sexton
 Web site: www.faylcms.org

Our practice of closed communion is the historic practice of the church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity is central to the common reception of this sacrament. For this reason, guests who desire to commune are asked to speak with the pastor before the service.

WELCOME! We invite all visitors to sign the guest register in the narthex and worship with us again. If you are not a first time visitor and are not communing, please complete the card located with communion cards in front of the pews. If you have questions about how to join our church or study the Scriptures with us, please speak with one of our Elders or the Pastor.

Each Saturday evening from 6-8PM Pastor Rappe avails himself for private confession and absolution, that which the historical Lutheran Church refers to as the third Sacrament. This is made available to those whose consciences are burdened and whose hearts are troubled. No one is forced to make private confession, as no one is forced to Baptism or the Holy Supper. Rather, this is the means of God's gospel to those who seek Him and the forgiveness of sins in Jesus.

OLD TESTAMENT

Thus says God the LORD,

Who created the heavens and stretched them out,
 Who spread forth the earth and that which comes from it,
 Who gives breath to the people on it,
 And spirit to those who walk on it:
 "I, the LORD, have called You in righteousness,
 And will hold Your hand;
 I will keep You and give You as a covenant to the people,
 As a light to the Gentiles,
 To open blind eyes,
 To bring out prisoners from the prison,
 Those who sit in darkness from the prison house.
 I am the LORD, that is My name;
 And My glory I will not give to another,
 Nor My praise to carved images.
 Behold, the former things have come to pass,
 And new things I declare;
 Before they spring forth I tell you of them."

Sing to the LORD a new song,
 And His praise from the ends of the earth,
 You who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,
 You coastlands and you inhabitants of them!
 Let the wilderness and its cities lift up their voice,
 The villages that Kedar inhabits.
 Let the inhabitants of Sela sing,
 Let them shout from the top of the mountains.
 Let them give glory to the LORD,
 And declare His praise in the coastlands.

EPISTLE

Now those who were scattered after the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to no one but the Jews only. But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus. And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord.

Announcements

Then news of these things came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch. When he came and had seen the grace of God, he was glad, and encouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should continue with the Lord. For he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were added to the Lord.

Then Barnabas departed for Tarsus to seek Saul. And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they assembled with the church and taught a great many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

And in these days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch. Then one of them, named Agabus, stood up and showed by the Spirit that there was going to be a great famine throughout all the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius Caesar. Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea. This they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Now in the church that was at Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Now separate to Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." Then, having fasted and prayed, and laid hands on them, they sent them away.

HOLY GOSPEL

MARK 6:7-13

And He called the twelve to Himself, and began to send them out two by two, and gave them power over unclean spirits. He commanded them to take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bag, no bread, no copper in their money belts— But to wear sandals, and not to put on two tunics.

Also He said to them, "In whatever place you enter a house, stay there till you depart from that place. And whoever will not receive you nor hear you, when you depart from there, shake off the dust under your feet as a testimony against them. Assuredly, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!"

So they went out and preached that people should repent. And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick, and healed them.

ST BARNABAS, APOSTLE-JUNE 11TH:

Barnabas, one of Christian disciples, was originally called Joseph. After Paul's conversion, it was Barnabas who introduced the former persecutor of Christians to the apostles. With Paul he organized the first missionary journey, but he was soon overshadowed by Paul. At the council of Jerusalem he defended the claims of the Gentile Christians. In the Eastern Church, Barnabas is commemorated as one of the seventy commissioned by Jesus, and the observance dates from the fifth century. Tradition asserts that he martyred at Slamis, Cyprus, in A.D. 61. He is regarded as the founder of the church on Cyprus.
